Wartime Baby Crop Crowding Torrance Schools

Torrance schools are feeling the effect of the wartime increase in population due to new births, it was indicated this week as the fall term opened.

Torrance elementary school found it necessary to turn away some 40 children whose parents desired to enter them in kindergarten. It is said, because of the fact that the staff was not present to handle them. The same situation existed at the beginning of the fall term last year, and a second kindergarten teacher is being sought.

Crowded conditions also were reported in the lower grades of the other schools of Torrance, and it was said that the situation will be remedied as soon as facilities can be provided.

Get-Out-Vote Campaign Urged By Kiwanis Club

Alarmed at the lack of interest in voting at the recent general and special elections, the Torrance Kiwanis Club is in unison with other clubs throughout the country who have launched a "get-out-the-vote" drive this week.

President John Stroh said, "The right to vote in the November general election will be lost to citizens not properly registered by Sept. 26. Prospective voters may register if they have come of age or will become 21 before Nov. 5, if they have not registered previously."

President John Stroh and Vice-President Edwin B. Brown and other officers of Kiwanis Clubs of Southern California will meet at the Los Angeles Breakfast club this evening where additional plans of the Kiwanis "get-out-the-vote" campaign will be presented.

Torrance Police And Firemen Plan 10th Annual Show

The opening gun for the forthcoming Torrance Police and Firemen Show to be staged here the latter part of October, was fired Tuesday night at a meeting of the Police and Firemen's Association. Police Captain Ernest Ashton was elected president of the group and Sgt. Fred Bennett was made vice-president.

Police Chief John H. Stroh who has served as secretary of the organization since its inception ten years ago, was succeeded as secretary-treasurer by Capt. Roy Winters of the Torrance Fire Department.

Plans were discussed for the tenth annual benefit, it was announced, with the group now engaged in rounding up talent for the 1946 offering here. Ashton reported that efforts would be made to locate the best available acts for the presentation and promised a million dollars worth of laughs for those attending.

Nearby Lions Clubs To Hold Picnic

Lions club members from cities surrounding Torrance will converge on Torrance Sunday morning for an all-day picnic.

WILLIAM MACKAY CALDWELL, Secretary of the Torrance club, said the picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. Smith, of the Torrance club. Lions will come to Torrance with their families in numbers which will run into the hundreds, President Smith said, from San Pedro, Redondo Beach, Wilmington, Manhattan Beach and Compton. Torrance Lions are acting as guest-hosts for the affair.

The visiting clubs belong to Zone C of the Bay region of Lions International while Torrance is in the Metropolitan Region, it was explained.

Jess Headlee, chairman of Zone C, Bay region, is arranging the affair, and it will be featured by a ball game between the champion Torrance Recreation league, Lions Club (boys 12 to 14 years of age) team and a team picked from the members of the various clubs.

Torrance Note Appears On Wall St

Torrance "made" the Wall Street Journal on Sept. 3, when the Harbor Industrial Tract was announced as being available to heavy industry by the Ivan A. Thorson organization, sales agents for the tract.

The Journal statement said that the Harbor Industrial Tract is "surrounded by nationally known heavy industries who selected this location because of the superior facilities available in the way of utilities, transportation, shipping, living conditions and low land taxes." The tract is bounded by Western ave., Arlington ave., 190th st. and 203rd st., and consists of 237 acres. It was purchased recently by Merlyn Teskey, Los Angeles transportation firm head, from the Dominguez Estates Co. It was the first time the land had changed hands since it was granted to the Dominguez family by the King of Spain 100 years ago.

Councilman William H. Tolson, agent for the sale and who is representing the sales agents in Torrance, pointed out that the initials of the Harbor Industrial Tract "HIT" stand for a "hit" for industry and Torrance.
